ANALYSING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS – 3 DAYS

Our Financial Analysis course takes you through the “step-by-step” of financial statements interpretation. Participants will gain clear insight into the techniques that investors, creditors, bankers and other analysts use to evaluate organisations. Using basic excel, participants will learn how to evaluate current operations as well as anticipate future corporate performance. Everyone on this programme will leave better equipped to make decisions that can positively impact the fortune of their organisation

Learning Objectives:

Participants will:

• Possess a deeper understanding of the relationships among the three major financial statements

• Understand how business decisions affect interrelationships among items of the statement

• Identify business operations which drive movements in financial statements

• Apply financial ratios to analyze trends, competitors, and future economic decisions

• Utilize spreadsheet tools and techniques in analyzing financial statements

Learning Contents:

• The Financial statements

• Profit and cash flow statements

• Ratio analysis

• Interpretation of accounts

• Addressing potential problems revealed in financial statements

• Benchmarking business performance

• Financial information databases

• Budgets and forecasts

• The lender’s perspectives of financial statements

• Applying spreadsheets in comparisons of divisions, business units and entire companies

Fee: Negotiable

Discount off regular fees for open Programme: 3-5 nominations 5%

Programme also available as in-plant. Fee: Negotiable.

Who Should Attend?

Members of the finance team in all organizations and managers who want deeper understanding of financial statements and their influence on operation and strategy.

Property of Impact Consulting Nigeria.

- 10, Obokun Street, Off Coker Road, Ilupeju, Lagos.
- Tel.: +2348023060462,+2348033876456,+2348033014321
- info@impactconsultingng.com